1. The first of these is the fact that the United States has a long and distinguished record of leadership in the field of human rights. This record is reflected in the many treaties and conventions to which the United States has adhered, and in the many resolutions and declarations adopted by the United States and other leading nations. The United States has also been a leading proponent of the United Nations Human Rights Commission, and has played a key role in the development of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
